

I am writing to oppose lifting the ban on ownership of a television station and a newspaper in the same locality. Lifting the ban would result in the concentration of ownership of media outlets in fewer and fewer hands. Democracy flourishes when more voices are heard. If this not the goal of the FCC, then why have an FCC at all?